PRESIDENT Macapagal-Arroyo presides back in Cavite during yesterday's groundbreaking of the $117-million Cavite coast road expansion, her pet project when she was just an assistant secretary at the Department of Trade and Industry.

RAY MONTECALVO

New Cavite road project launched

By Julia Labog-Jewell

PRESIDENT Macapagal-Arroyo yesterday broke ground for the Manila-Cavite Coastal Road extension project which is expected to relieve Cavite residents of traffic woes and boost the province's industrialization.

With the $117-million road project, which she claimed had been her pet project since she was a trade assistant secretary assigned to Cavite in 1989, Ms. Macapagal tried to make inroads on the acknowledged turf of presidential rival Sen. Ramon Revilla.

"This is a new chapter in the history of Cavite, Calabarzon and the Philippines," Ms. Macapagal said.

Ms. Macapagal lowered the blue sash to signify the start of the construction of the 11.3-km Manila-Cavite Toll Expressway Project, which will stretch the existing highway from Pany to Zapote to Kawit and on to Noveleta, Cavite.

The project requires the construction of a viaduct traversing Manila Bay from Zapote to Kawit, and from Kawit to Noveleta, adding 11.3 kms to the existing 5.4 km coastal highway. Projected to be finished in two years, the extension is expected to reduce to one hour the traveling time from Coastal Road at the Manila airport junction to Kawit, Cavite.

Children of Cavite

The groundbreaking saw the gathering of famous sons and daughters of Cavite, including the Revilla and Remulla families that have been long-time political enemies.

Ms. Macapagal spent half of her speech acknowledging the guests, which included Sen. Ramon Revilla and his son Ramon "Bong" Revilla Jr. who the President said would be the "real capponered" in the senatorial elections. Cavite Gov. Apung Makalal, former Cavite Governor Johnny Remulla and Epifanio Remulla, former Mayor Jesus Castillo, Cavite Rep. Roderick Abaya, former Rep. Vicente Paterno.

She was also joined by Transportation Secretary Leonardo Mañosa, Defense Secretary Edmundo Mito who is the Cabinet Officer for Regional Development for Southern Tagalog, Presidential Adviser on Official Development Assistance Projects Marko Anson, and Public Works Undersecretary Ted Escudacion, who the President said declined to head the DPWH and was instead appointed Cabinet adviser on highway infrastructure projects. Also present were former Prime Minister Costr Vito who heads the Coastal Road Corp., Public Estates Authority Chief Executive Teodoro Tapia and a representative of the International Finance Corp. which provides $70 million of the project cost.

GMA brainchild

The coastal road extension project was part of the Cavite Trade and Industry Plan which Ms. Macapagal reportedly supervised as trade assistant secretary in 1989.

When she became President, she said she found out that the project had not begun because of bureaucratic, financial and legal problems.

That is when, she said, in her visit to the United States in November 2001, she had negotiations with the Washington-based IFC to finance the project's construction.

IFC will underwrite $70 million of the $117-million cost of the project, with the UDA-MABA Philippines Corp. (UMPC) providing the balance. UMPC and Coastal Road Corp. will undertake the project on a joint venture with the Public Estates Authority.

No two Revillas in Senate—Bong

By Jo Clemente
PDI General Editor

ACTOR and former Videogram Regulatory Board chair Ramon "Bong" Revilla Jr. said he would hug his estranged friend, fellow actor and former San Juan Mayor Dingoy Estrada, should they both win and meet for the first time on the Senate floor.

"I will hug him," said Revilla, whose friendship with Estrada was strained in 2001 when he supported the Bira 0 movement that ousted Estrada's father, former President Joseph Estrada. Revilla was governor of Cavite at that time.

Unlike the younger Estrada, who is running for senate while his mother, Sen. Lina Estrada, has three more years to her term, Revilla said he is doing so at a time when his father, Sen. Ramon Revilla, exits from the Senate.

"There won't be two Revillas in the Senate because if I win, I would come in exactly when my father's term expires," he said.

But another family member, Revilla's brother-in-law, Sen. Robert Jaworski, is running for reelection, also under the administration's EA coalition.

When asked by the Inquirer why there is a need for another Revilla in the Senate, the younger Revilla said he should not be compared with his father.

He said his candidacy should not be seen as a continuation of his father's work because they are two different persons. He said most of the elder Revilla's concerns were in public works because he is the chair of the Senate committee on public works.

Revilla said he would come in with a different set of agenda that would include proposals to improve and uplift the movie and entertainment industry.

He lamented that while there are more and more actors and media personalities being elected to various positions, "not much had been done for the industry."

"But I do not blame them because they want to prove to their critics that they can serve the public and they are not mere actors," he said.

Revilla and Rep. Blanca Kim Hernandez-Lakin of the Citra party-list group were here on Sunday to attend the city fiesta and hold a dialogue with barangay leaders.

Figure 100 brings us the full story, as it is a full-page illustration of the scene. The artist has used a variety of colors to bring the scene to life. The colors are not just for decoration, but they also help to tell the story. For example, the red of the sky and the blue of the water are used to create a sense of depth and atmosphere. The colors also help to distinguish between the different elements of the scene, such as the sky, the water, and the land.

Phyllis still came out when I was 16, and she stayed in the house as I left her. Now I never let women come into the house, as the wife I found myself with in England is not. We will be there on Friday and we will be there.

The 1971 study of women, for example, at one time reported that 50% of the women taking a course in mathematics were married, but a later study reported that 60% of the women taking a course in mathematics were married. The difference could be due to a change in the population of women taking the course, or it could be due to a change in the way the data were collected.

Following my dream

It was a long, hard journey, but I finally made it to the Philippines. I was excited and nervous at the same time. I had heard so much about the country and its people, and I wanted to see it all for myself.

When I first came to the Philippines, I was struck by the warm and friendly people. They welcomed me with open arms and made me feel like I was part of their community. I was amazed by the vibrant culture and the beautiful scenery.

I was also impressed by the talent of the Filipino musicians. They have a unique sound that is a blend of traditional and modern music. I was inspired by their passion for their craft and their ability to connect with their audience.

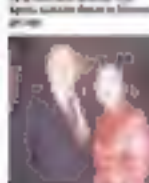

Over the years, I have become a fan of the Philippines. I love the people, the culture, and the beautiful scenery. I have made many friends here and I feel like I have found a second home. I am grateful for the opportunity to follow my dream and to share my music with the people of the Philippines.

Injured by the Storm
Major financial institutions and the U.S. Treasury Department were severely and, in some cases, irreparably damaged by the storm's winds. The Federal Reserve Bank of New York, for example, suffered a $100-million loss in the storm, which destroyed the bank's main building and its vaults. The Federal Reserve Bank of New York, which is the largest of the 12 regional banks, is the only one that is not a member of the Federal Reserve System. It is the only one that is not a member of the Federal Reserve System.
